

Autumn Olive
(Elaeagnus umbellata)

- Leaves simple and alternate, silver-gray on the underside, lance-shaped or elliptic, with entire, wavy margins
- Flowers cream colored and tube-shaped in leaf axils in mid-April
- Reddish purple berries form September - October
- Invades open areas and disturbed forests throughout Monroe County