

Creeping Charlie
(Glechoma hederacea)

- Aromatic, perennial, evergreen creeping vine with roots at each node
- Leaves opposite, round to kidney-shaped, with rounded teeth along the edges
- Flowers purple, funnel shaped, grow in clusters in the leaf axils on the upper part of the stem; flowers in spring

